PRESS RELEASE | AD HOC ANNOUNCEMENT PURSUANT TO ART. 53 LR

EvoNext Holdings SA publishes half-year report 2026

Reinach, Switzerland, 30 September 2026 — EvoNext Holdings SA (SIX: EVE) (“EvoNext”) today published the half-year report 2026 in accordance with applicable stock exchange regulations.

As regards the half-year 2026 financial report, the financial statements and position as of 30 June 2026 comprise:

- EvoNext Holdings SA held liquidity of CHF 5.5 million, consisting of CHF 4.2 million cash and CHF 1.3 million liquid securities;
- Total assets held are CHF 5.6 million and equity balance stands at CHF 5.3 million;
- The net loss for the first six months amounted to CHF 0.6 million, mainly driven by transaction- and search-related one-off expenses.

Advanced discussions with Ascend Sport Technology

In the first half-year 2026, the Board continued and intensified its exploration of strategic opportunities in public mergers and acquisitions, with a particular focus on reverse takeovers.

On August 17 EvoNext confirmed being in advanced discussions with Ascend Sport Technology AG to bring the company to the public market through a reverse merger. It is envisioned that the transaction will result in a valuation for current EvoNext shareholders equal to CHF 2.50 per share. Ascend is a profitable, AI-enabled Swiss sports technology company that combines proprietary hardware, software and data capabilities across the sports value chain, serving rightsholders, sponsors and broadcasters.

There can be no certainty that the ongoing discussions will result in a binding agreement. The Company will inform the market of further developments in due course.
